

CC Environmental Film Festival
 at VISUAL Carlow

County Carlow Environmental Network (CCEN) are delighted to announce their first Environmental Film Festival at VISUAL. CCEN is a voluntary organisation that aims to empower the communities of Carlow town and County to take action in tackling current environmental issues through various simple, positive actions. These films have been carefully selected for their uplifting, solution-focused themes, dealing with various aspects of our Climate Emergency and are suitable for all ages. Screenings will be free of charge. CCEN meets every first Tuesday of the month at An Gairdín Beo in Carlow Town at 7pm. New members are always welcome.

19th February → 7 to 9 PM

Home

Beautiful aerial shots showing the diversity of life on Earth.
 90 minutes (2009)

18th March → 7 to 9 PM

River Blue

River Blue follows river advocate Mark Angelo on a journey through some of the world's most beautiful to the most polluted rivers.
 97 minutes (2017)

15th April → 7 to 9 PM

Closing the Loop

The world's first feature-length documentary film on the circular economy.
 93minutes (2018)

20th May → 7 to 9 PM

The Race is On

Hopeful solutions outlining the power we still possess to save our planet.
 39 minutes (2019)

and

A Drop in the Ocean

Produced by Trocaire, considering Climate Change from an Irish viewpoint.
 28 minutes (2015)

check all event updates on :

<https://ccen.ie/environmental-film-festival/>

info@ccen.ie
 www.ccen.ie

VISUAL

CC Environmental Network

@county_carlowEN
 CarlowEnvironmentalNetwork

Publisher: CCEN, info@ccen.ie · image extract: Home (Creative Commons licence) · graphic design: Colm O'Neill (colm.be) for CCEN · Please dispose of this poster responsibly